"The INMA Awards represent a snapshot of the creativity, passion, and soul of the news media industry," said Earl J. Wilkinson, executive director and CEO of INMA. "Finalists announced today have demonstrated a world-class ability to communicate their value proposition in fast-changing times."

INMA Awards 2015 finalists

The coveted INMA Awards, created in 1935, represent the pinnacle in media industry creativity to energise news brands, stimulate audiences, innovate in product development, and grow revenue in transformational times.

The INMA Awards 2015 competition generated 578 entries from 190 companies in 38 countries.

The 80th annual competition was judged in February by an international jury of 33 executives from 15 countries representing the world of news media marketing.

First-place recipients in the INMA Awards 2015 competition will be announced Tuesday, 12 May, at the conclusion of the INMA World Congress in New York. The awards ceremony will be held at the Edison Ballroom in Times Square.

In addition to the announcement of 30 first-place recipients, the INMA Awards dinner in New York will conclude with the presentation of the "Best in Show," representing the top sales and marketing campaign by a media company from the past
