

Registration open for International Tourism Film Festival-Africa 2019

The International Tourism Film Festival-Africa (ITFFA), organised by Sustainable Tourism Partnership Programme (STTP) with the support of Brand South Africa and in Cooperation with the International Committee of Tourism Film Festivals (CIFFT), will be hosting its first-ever film festival in South Africa, which is set to take place in Cape Town and Northern Cape from the 20 -24 November 2019. The film screening and conference will be hosted in the Northern Cape at the Apollo Theatre in Victoria West.

Image source: Gallo/Getty

"We have created a platform for Africa to showcase itself as a filming destination as well as a tourism destination. We have the skills, the talent, facilities, great weather to encourage international filmmakers to film their commercials and films in Africa," says Caroline Ungersbock, ITFFA festival director.

The festival comprises two sections:

1. Tourism communications and documentaries.
2. Tourism films, travel videos, documentaries, tv reports and web docks.

Visit ITFFA to register.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>