SINGAPORE: A total of 3058 entries from 22 countries will be competing at this year's Spikes Asia Festival, which kicks off this forthcoming Sunday, 19 September 2010, in Singapore, a 14% increase versus last year.

The categories that have shown the highest increase are TV/Cinema Craft, Radio and Direct & Sales Promotion. The top countries participating are India with 452 entries, followed by Singapore with 379, Japan on 333 and Australia with 309 entries.

"This year we have seen growth across practically all categories, and in some areas the entry levels have more than doubled. Awards provide recognition, inspiration and motivation and we are delighted with the support the agencies are giving to Spikes Asia, now the largest awards in the region. With a record number of attendees expected, Spikes Asia is proving to be the leading industry event to attend," said Philip Thomas, CEO of Cannes Lions, joint organisers with Haymarket of Spikes Asia.
