The awards are run by global textiles giant Vision Support Services.

Comprising of six forest villas, Bisate Lodge, situated next to Rwanda's volcanoes national park is a first of its kind eco-sensitive camp.

The awards were judged by a number of industry professionals from across the hospitality and travel industry including:

Lori Pinkerton-Rolet – Director of Park Grove Design

Mark Wynne – International sales director for Vision's Hospitality Division

Nigel Haworth – Chef and ambassador to the Northcote Group

Abigail King – Award-winning photographer, Journalist and Blogger

Bill Lumley – Editor of Luxury B&B Magazine

Fraser Donaldson – Group hospitality sales and marketing director for Vision Support Services

The judges deliberated over three finalists, from each of the seven categories, in order to crown their final seven winners.
