To match the upbeat pace of Joburg and its people, 947 likes to keep things exciting and fresh. They've decided to shake-up their weekday and weekend line-up by welcoming new presenters to the team.

Straight from the "Mother City", Andy Maqondwana will add a fresh beat to daytime listening with boundless energy. Andy is familiar with the Primedia Broadcasting brand, having been a presenter on 947's sister station Kfm 94.5. She'll oversee the workday soundtrack from 9am to 12 noon.

Andy, who is originally from the Eastern Cape, has a BSc degree as well as an honours degree in psychology. She can be described as a trendsetter, relatable, feisty, warm and believes in figuring life out with the people around her. Her motto is "we are in this together."

As a new girl in Joburg, Andy says she is ready for the fast-paced life of the vibrant city. "It's been a long time coming and I'm ready for the move. I'm so excited to meet new people off and on air," she says.

Andy will keep listeners entertained with the biggest hits from the 947 playlist, the freshest lifestyle content, relationship conversations while keeping listeners linked to the heart-beat of Joburg.

On weekends 947 will continue its formula of combining hit music and engaging personalities as the perfect soundtrack to Joburg's weekend lifestyle. A new introduction to the line-up: the new 947 Weekend Breakfast show will be hosted by Lusky Nkohla and our latest recruit Hulisani Ravele.

Hulisani launched her career as a nine-year-old TV presenter before adding radio to her portfolio, most recently with Capricorn FM. Lusky Nkohla began his radio career at UJFM and honed his skills at Yfm before joining 947 where he has been presenting the Sunday evening show.

Station Manager Thando Makhunga is looking forward to the new line-up. "947 is excited to welcome new talent to the station and will continue to provide Joburg audiences with engaging and entertaining personalities on their favourite radio station."
