

Celebrating five years with a Splash

Splash PR and media consultants celebrated its 5th birthday at Relish Restaurant and Bar on Thursday November 30.

Guests indulged in gourmet canapés created by Relish's new executive chef Loran Livesey and sparkling wine while listening to the sounds of super-hot Cape Town band Coda. Guests had the chance to win a host of fabulous prizes including fashion garments from PUMA, gadgets from Oregon Scientific, tickets to the Kirstenbosch Summer Sunset Concerts and the Table Mountain Aerial Cableway and a weekend in the BreedeKloof wine region.

"Five years seemed like a milestone that called for a celebration and it was an opportunity to thank our loyal clients and friends in the media for their support of our agency," said Kerry Seymour, managing director of Splash PR.
