

RCS partners with Superbalist to expand e-commerce offering

RCS and Superbalist have partnered to provide consumers with a seamless, secure and efficient online shopping experience, just in time for the pre-Christmas shopping rush.

This new partnership welcomes RCS as a payment option at South Africa's online fashion retailer, Superbalist.com, and gives the company the opportunity to serve a younger, more urban market with a variety of credit and payment options.

RCS shop cardholders shopping at Superbalist.com have the option of interest-free repayment within 55 days or a flexible repayment period of up to 36 months.
