

Fokofpolisiekar, GoodLuck and Sketchy Bongo to headline Zando's Cape Town 10s

Social sport and entertainment festival, Zando Cape Town 10s celebrates its 10th anniversary from 1 to 3 February 2018 at the Hamilton Rugby Club.

The event, which was the winner of the Discovery Sports Industry Award for Best Live Experience in 2016, will feature a blend of tried and tested sporting disciplines, including rugby, netball, dodgeball, beach volleyball as well as the newly introduced sports of five-a-side soccer and hockey, the 'Run the 10s' fun run and a unique fitness event.

Over the years, 10s has featured a number of appearances by the sporting legends including the late, Jonah Lomu; Tana Umaga, Christian Cullen, Bryan Habana and former Protea skipper Graeme Smith.

For those that aren't fazed with sports, guests can expect an entertainment lineup featuring top local and international music acts including Fokofpolisiekar, GoodLuck, Sketchy Bongo, DJ Sox, Majozi, the Light Years and more.

Launched in 2009 by rugby legends Bob Skinstad, Rob Fleck and their long-standing friend Ron Rutland, the event has come a long way since its start, with 22 rugby teams and a total of 350 teams expected to participate.

"We are absolutely delighted with the success of the 10s brand and would like to thank everyone for their continued support over the past 10 years. A record number of new sports are lined up for the 2018 edition, which sets this 10s tournament as the largest of its kind in the world. We are excited and proud to host this award-winning iconic city event. Let's celebrate Cape Town!" comments Skinstad.

Team entries for a number of sports are already sold out.
