

The Wedding Bash(ers)* crown season 2 winners

M-Net's The Wedding Bash(ers) recently crowned the winners of its second season - Megan and Jason. The show sees four South African celebrities - also referred to as 'The Squad' comprises former Miss South Africa Bernelee Daniel, entertainer Denise Zimba, chef and food stylist Zola Nene and top wedding planner Zavion Kotze - attend 15 weddings while they judge each one on five key criteria: fashion and beauty, décor, food, entertainment and overall experience.

Michelle Damaskinos from Constance Hotels & Resorts and Lena Hoareau from the Seychelles Tourism Board awarding the prize to the winning couple, Megan and Jason from East London during the finale of the show.

As the headline sponsors of the show, the Seychelles Tourism Board, Air Seychelles and Constance Hotels & Resorts provide the prizes, which include a second honeymoon experience to Seychelles. Michelle Damaskinos from Constance Hotels & Resorts and Lena Hoareau from the Seychelles Tourism Board awarded this season's winning couple with the grand prize of a fully sponsored five-night second honeymoon.

A second-holiday prize to Seychelles was awarded to one lucky viewer who voted during the season for their favourite wedding.
