

Armien Tyer joins Absa as head of investments

Absa Wealth and Investment Management has appointed Armien Tyer as head of its investment cluster, covering active, passive and alternative asset management with effect from 1 December 2013. Armien is a seasoned investment professional and leader, having fulfilled the role of MD at Sanlam Investment Management for six years and served on the board for seven.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>