

aYo Holdings appoints new group chief executive aYo Holdings, a joint venture between MTN and Momentum Metropolitan Holdings (MMH), has appointed Marius Botha as its new group chief executive officer (CEO).

Botha was formerly the CEO of life insurer Stangen for nearly seven years, having previously held executive positions at African Bank and Munich Re. He holds an honours degree in actuarial science and an MPhil in future studies.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>