

KZN farmers help fire-stricken Eastern Cape farmers

Kwa-Zulu Natal farmers have helped Eastern Cape farmers that have been affected by wild fires in the last month by donating over 1000 bales of animal feed.

The recent wild fires have claimed lives, razed homes and devastated land.

The donated bale will help see the affected farmers through winter.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>