Issued by AMASA 30 May 2016

Members of the communications, media or advertising industry who wish to stand as committee members may nominate themselves or anyone who is willing to stand.

The core focus of AMASA is to focus on the education levels of those with an interest in the media, marketing and advertising industry, with a view to improving knowledge and skills in media decision making techniques and their use.

Current chairperson, Wayne Bischoff, is excited for the next nomination process. "We are looking for energetic committee members who will bring with them passion, educated opinions as well as devoted dedication over the next 12 months. It is also very rewarding, both professionally and personally, to be a part of elevating our industry to new heights. And we also have quite a lot of fun! I welcome all to apply now!"

It is important to our industry that the AMASA Joburg committee is a well-balanced and fairly representative committee, of media owners and agency representatives, as well as marketers. So the nominations are open to all sectors of the advertising media and include all marketing and media professionals.
