Howard Audio pulled a few all-nighters during our new project for MTN. We were tasked with reproducing an exact copy and re-record of The Commodore's "Night Shift" for their latest TV commercial, directed by Teboho Mahlatsi from The Bomb Commercials.

"Teboho worked closely with us to recapture the essence of the original recording. The song, an 80's classic, is a heartfelt favourite of many South Africans. We chose Tim Moloi to recapture the distinctive lyrical style of Walter Orange, proving once again that he is one of South Africa's most versatile vocalists."
