After a day of more leisurely events on and around the Durban beachfront and recuperating from a night of celebration, attendees were ready as ever for the second night of the 2018 Loeries Awards.

MEC for Economic Development, Tourism and Environmental Affairs, Sihle Zikalala, opened the ceremony, with Loeries creative voice Donovan Goliath as emcee. Zikalala said that Durban must become the “Cannes of Africa” and that the creative industry should help make this happen.

Commenting on their sponsorship of the Loeries, spokesperson, CEO of DStv Media Sales, Fahmeeda Cassim-Surtee, said that DStv will continue to invest in the Loeries. "In a world that is becoming more about machine learning and automation, it seems that one of the only things that drive us is creativity and a bit of competition, of which the Loeries does both."

On the Saturday night, awards were presented across the categories of:

- Effective creativity, sponsored by Woolworths;
- Film, sponsored by DStv;
- Integrated campaign, sponsored by AB InBev;
- Live communications, sponsored by Gearhouse;
- Media innovation;
- PR and media communication;
- Radio and audio, sponsored by Gagasi FM;
- Service design, sponsored by Accenture;
- The SANBS public service award, awarded to Joburg Ballet 'Breaking Ballet' by TBWA\Hunt\Lascaris;
- Agency of the year, which went to Joe Public United, with TBWA\Hunt\Lascaris Johannesburg in second place and Impact BBDO Dubai coming in third; and

- Regional agency group of the year is TBWA\Hunt\Lascaris Johannesburg.

Grand Prix-view

The three Grands Prix on the night were awarded to:

- La Libanaise Des Jeux's 'Lucky Face' by Impact BBDO Dubai - Integrated campaign
- Louvre Abu Dhabi's 'Highway Gallery' by TBWA\RAAD Dubai - Radio
- Kimberly-Clark 'The World's First Baby Marathon' by Ogilvy Johannesburg - Film communication

This brought the total to 287 Loeries awarded across 14 categories, including 6 Grands Prix, 31 Golds, 69 Silvers, 113 Bronzes, 18 Craft Golds and 50 Craft Certificates.

More than 2,500 entries were received, with 15% of entries from outside South Africa. A total of 700 brands were represented by 265 agencies from 15 countries across Africa and the Middle East.

Special awards

In addition to Nando's CMO Doug Place winning the Marketing Leadership and Innovation Award, presented the previous night, Greg Gray of Romance Films was this year's Hall of Fame inductee.
