

How do I gain entry to Sunday Times, Mail&Guardian and Independent on Sunday as an Intern

The mainstream English newspapers should be accessible to junior journalists fresh from the desk.

I am finishing my Journalism diploma in 2009 July. I freelance for Isolezwe newspaper in Durbs, write feature articles, do television doccies and have, optionally, a legal background. So I think I am intelligent, focused, diligent and GOOD IN WHAT I DO. I know my story! Just how do I crack into Sunday Times, Mail&Guardian, City Press or Independent on Sunday as an intern? or Do I need to be EDITORIALY connected? What do you say...?
