

How about a second Afrikaans Sunday paper?

Rapport is become so sensational and is simply not catering for 'forward-thinking' Afrikaners (yes, believe it or not -- we are out here!!)...

I am tired of reading about some former Springbok's messy divorce on the front page and all the sensational stories about 'Groot Gat Godinne' inside... Apart from the 'perspektief' section (where Hanlie Retief interviews prominent personalities, politicians etc) the paper is good for only one thing -- the floor on my parrot's cage... Come on! Give us Afrikaners some in-depth, proper journalism in our Sunday paper...

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>