

Verstappen Mexican GP winner, Hamilton 2017 Championship winner

NEWSWATCH: Max Verstappen (Red Bull Racing TAG Heuer) was crowned the winner of the Mexican Grand Prix which took place on Sunday, 29 October 2017 while Lewis Hamilton (Mercedes) took home the title of overall 2017 Championship winner.

This was Verstappen's second win of the season, ahead of Valtteri Bottas (Mercedes) and Kimi Raikkonen (Ferrari) who came in second and third respectively.

Hamilton came ninth after he and Sebastian Vettel (Ferrari) made contact in the opening laps and were forced to early pit-stops. This, fortunately, didn't keep Hamilton from claiming his fourth F1 world championship victory.
