

Winners of 2018 Webby Awards announced

The winners of the 22nd Annual Webby Awards have been announced.

© Webby Awards Facebook.

The announcement comes after 13,000+ entries, and 3 million votes cast by 700,000+ people in the Webby People's Voice Awards.

These winners include films like Jay-Z's Smile; podcasts like Pod Save the People; games like Cuphead and The Long Dark – and more.

Internet heavy hitters

The Webbys will also honour a series of internet heavy hitters with Webby Special Achievement Awards for having a major impact this year, including:

- Mozilla executive Mitchell Baker for Webby Lifetime Achievement
- Susan Fowler for Webby Person of the Year
- Musician/dancer FKA twigs for Webby Special Achievement
- Ozark's Laura Linney for Webby Best Actress
- Director Steven Soderbergh (creator, Mosaic) for Webby Film and Video Person of the Year
- Actor/Activist Jesse Williams (creator, BLeBRITY and Ebroji) for Webby Special Achievement
- David Chang (Ugly Delicious, Netflix) for Webby Special Achievement
- Philadelphia Eagles' Chris Long for Webby Best Athlete

See all the winners here. The star-studded night, hosted by Late Night's Amber Ruffin, will be available to watch on demand at webbyawards.com on Tuesday, 15 May 2018.