

Cape Town's La Colombe added to World's 50 Best Restaurant Extended List

Cape Town restaurant La Colombe was listed as the 114th restaurant on the World's 50 Best Restaurants, which has been extended from 51 to 120 in celebration of the 120th anniversary of main sponsor San Pellegrino.

The extension was created to shine the spotlight and champion a growing number of brilliant chefs, celebrate regional diversity and embrace hospitality teams more globally. The list is compiled by a voting academy of over 1,000 international chefs, food writers and travelling gastronomes.

This year, the 51 to 120 best restaurants list includes restaurants from 25 countries across five continents and boasts 21 new entries from 15 countries. Marking a near 30% increase in new territories compared to previous years.

La Colombe is headed up by Executive Chef James Gaag, Head Chef Jess van Dyk and Chef-Proprietor Scot Kirton. "We are so proud of this achievement and would like to thank 'The World's 50 Best Restaurants' for selecting La Colombe as one of the top restaurants in the world. We are delighted to be included, and the La Colombe team appreciates this notable international recognition. No doubt, we are definitely aiming to move up on that list in 2020. We have some awesome inspiration for our loyal local and international diners following our recent trip to the US and Mexico," says Executive Chef Gaag.
