

Uhuru Kenyatta's media company gets new boss

Former Milele FM CEO, Granton Samboja has been named the holder of newly created Mediamax Group executive director position. This move automatically displaces Paul Wanyaga as the boss. Wanyaga was the chief operating officer at Standard Group before joining Mediamax.

Samboja rose to fame during his stint at Royal Media Services' Citizen Radio before leaving to start his own radio station, Milele FM. However when DPM Uhuru Kenyatta bought the radio station, Samboja had to be taken on board.

Mediamax which is owned by Uhuru Kenyatta is the mother company of the People Daily newspaper, Mile FM, Kameme FM, K24 TV and Meru FM.

Source: www.mediasourceafrica.com