

Analogue TVs to be switched off between Dec 2013, Jun 2014

Nairobi's analogue TV signal will be switched off on 13 December 2013 in the first phase of the digital migration process.

CCK director general, Francis Wangusi, says Mombasa, Kisumu, Eldoret, Nakuru, Nyeri and Malindi will be switched off next in the second phase on 30 March next year. The rest of the country will migrate to the digital platform on 30 June 2014.
