The theme for this year was 'style ahead of the field', and guests had the opportunity to explore prints, fabrics and colours inspired by Africa.

One of the main attractions were the fashion shows, which showcased various well known SA designers inclusive of Imprint ZA, Khosi Nkosi, Ri.Ch, Factory, and House of Ole.

Imprint ZA designer Mzukizi was also one of the prize sponsors and his range included relaxed sets for men in his signature prints and feminine, flowy silhouettes for women. Mzuzi looked dapper in his Imprint green suit!

VIPs were further entertained in the Glenviolet Jazztown Marquee by saxophonist Donvino and the jazz band while enjoying fine dining.

Apart from the VIPs and celebrities, the general public certainly did not disappoint. Amongst the best-dressed guests were Zizipho Buti and Siseko Thomas dressed by Uba Collections, Leon Payne dressed in Charthu Fashions, Chanelle Le Roux, and Sesethu Nzunzu.

The day ended with an after party, and boasted live performances by Mi Casa, Vin D., Euphonik, DJ Zinhle, and DJ Kent.

Well done GH Mumm and the official Sun Met for hosting an exceptional event.
