

Africa Netpreneur Prize deadline nears

The call for entries for the Africa Netpreneur Prize Initiative (ANPI) will be closing on 30 June 2019. That allows less than 10 days for African entrepreneurs to submit their businesses for the chance to pitch Jack Ma and win a share of the US$1m prize at the grand finale event in November 2019.

Source: pixabay.com

The ANPI is a flagship initiative for the Jack Ma Foundation in Africa. Jack Ma decided to create the prize after his first trip to Africa in July 2017 when he was inspired by the energy and entrepreneurial potential of the young people he met. The competition is open to entrepreneurs from across all countries of Africa to apply; and from all industries, including traditional and tech. It puts a special focus on small enterprises, female entrepreneurs, and those doing work to improve local communities.

Africa Netpreneur Prize calls for entries

29 Mar 2019

The ANPI is a flagship initiative for the Jack Ma Foundation in Africa. Jack Ma decided to create the prize after his first trip to Africa in July 2017 when he was inspired by the energy and entrepreneurial potential of the young people he met. The competition is open to entrepreneurs from across all countries of Africa to apply; and from all industries, including traditional and tech. It puts a special focus on small enterprises, female entrepreneurs, and those doing work to improve local communities.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>