

Zim reconsiders SA media ban

A Zimbabwean government delegation has assured the SA National Editors Forum that the decision to bar several SA publications from covering the presidential elections would be reconsidered. Applications to cover the election from journalists of Beeld, The Sunday Times and the Independent Newspapers group were turned down last Monday.

Source: news24

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>