

Ola!Films Annual Bash

Ola!Films held their annual industry bash in December last year. They transformed Amy Allais' patio into a kitsch and cool delight. The party was styled by art directors and was so effective that the table decorations ended up being worn by the guests!

The who's who of the film and commercials industry were treated to the best Margaritas on the continent and sumptuous summer cuisine, whilst a live Jazz band comprising of a vocalist, double bass player and keyboardist got people dancing in between all the great fare and the socializing.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>