

Z-CARD draws learners to register at Ekurhuleni East College

The Ekurhuleni East College, a Further Education and Training College and public provider of education, training and development, recently selected the compact Z-CARD® as the ideal communication medium in which to communicate with prospective students about its faculties and courses for 2013.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>