

Sage redefines accounting with Sage Live for iOS

Sage has launched a version of Sage Live which is available on iOS. As a new Apple mobility partner, this is the first of a series of solutions that Apple and Sage are collaborating together on for small businesses. The new Sage Live for iPad, iPhone and Apple Watch will deliver important advances in real time business management and improve efficiency across the entire supply chain for small and medium business users. Sage Live will be sold through Apple's ecosystem and Sage will work with Apple to help educate small and medium sized businesses on the benefits of mobile technology.
