

Flat6Labs Cairo accepting applications for 11th cycle

The Cairo-based Flat6Labs is now accepting applications for the 11th cycle of its four-month accelerator programme, which offers selected startups access to training, mentorship and EGP300,000 ($17,000) in seed funding.

Flat6Labs, which has headquarters in Cairo, Jeddah, and Abu Dhabi, is a regional startup accelerator programme that has invested in more than 50 companies to date.

The 11th edition of its Cairo-based programme will offer startups EGP300,000 ($17,000) in seed funding, while startups that meet predefined criteria by a designated committee are also eligible to receive grant funding of up to $25,000 each.

Nominations for Southern Africa Startup Awards now open

6 Apr 2018

Selected companies will receive coaching, training and mentorship, with the programme concluding with a demo day. Previous cohorts have included the likes of Instabug, MoneyFellows and Coterique.

Last July, Flat6Labs announced the first close of its EGP100 million ($5.6 million) fund with commitments of EGP20 million ($1.12 million) from Egypt Ventures and the Egyptian-American Enterprise Fund (EAEF).

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>