

Paarl Media appoints new leadership

Leading print professionals, the Paarl Media Group has recently appointed Kelvin Pillay as the new managing director of Paarl Media Cape.

Pillay joins the Group from Goodyear South Africa where he held the title of plant director and, prior to that, had a history with Murray & Roberts. Pillay has a B.Eng. (Chemical) degree from the University of Pretoria and a MBA from the Business School of the Netherlands.

The heatset plants leadership stands as such that Paul de Bruin has been promoted as the managing director of Paarl Media Gauteng. The leadership of Paarl Media KZN has been consolidated under executive director, Piet le Roux and Thys de Jager remains as the head of Paarl Media Paarl in his capacity as general manager.
