

Woolies hosts Beyoncé's glam squad

Woolworths recently hosted two members of Beyoncé's glam squad, Sir John and Ty Hunter, at its Canal Walk and Sandton stores. They shared their industry-leading expertise to update Woolworths staff members on industry best practices in a set of masterclasses and also hosted a customer event alongside South African television and radio personality Bonang Matheba.

The customers in attendance were given makeovers by Sir John and Ty Hunter as part of the masterclass held at the event.
