

Cape Classics becomes US importer of SA winery Taaibosch

South African winery Taaibosch has appointed Cape Classics as its US importer.

To bring Taaibosch back to its former glory, the Oddo family purchased Taaibosch in 2016 and began restoring the winery and building a new cellar. Taaibosch used to be known as Cordoba in the 1990s when it was considered one of South Africa's crown jewel estates.
