

Meet the Young Guns 17 finalists

Hailing from 22 countries around the world, 81 creative professionals have been named as finalists in the Young Guns 17 competition. Run by The One Club for Creativity, the competition aims to acknowledge international creative professionals aged 30 or younger.

Young Guns is the industry's only international, cross-disciplinary, portfolio-based awards competition that identifies today's vanguard of young creatives.

Submissions were received from more than 45 countries and judged by 61 top creatives from around the world, about half of whom are past Young Guns winners.

The young ones

This year's winners will be recognized at the Young Guns 17 celebration and party on Wednesday, November 20, 2019 at Sony Hall, 235 West 46th St. in New York.

Young Guns 17 winners receive a unique version of the iconic Young Guns Cube, designed exclusively for this year's incoming class, and have their permanent profile page added to the Young Guns website.

Winners also receive a complimentary one-year membership to The One Club for Creativity, permanent membership in Young Guns network, a chance to be featured in Young Guns events and an assortment of career-boosting opportunities from Young Guns sponsors.

Programme branding and design of the Cube award itself is recreated each year by a past Young Gun winner. This year's YG17 branding and award are designed by Hey Studio, Barcelona, founded by Verònica Fuerte (YG7).

Past Young Guns include rising stars who went on to become leaders in their chosen fields, including graphic designers James Victore (YG1), Stefan Sagmeister (YG1) and Jessica Walsh (YG8); advertising creatives Rei Inamoto (YG4) and Menno Kluin (YG6); illustrators Christoph Niemann (YG2) and Deanne Cheuk (YG4); photographers Ryan McGuinness (YG2) and Jeremy Floto/Cassandra Warner (aka floto+warner, YG5); typographers Alex Trochut (YG6) and Gemma O'Brien (YG13); film and video director Mike Mills, animation artist Todd St. John (YG1).
