

Moderate coffee drinking prevents Type 2 diabetes, cancer

A new report has revealed that studies have linked moderate coffee drinking, three or four cups a day, with a reduction in the risk of developing Type 2 diabetes, basal cell carcinoma (the most common skin cancer), prostate cancer, oral cancer and breast cancer recurrence. Source: The Times via I-Net Bridge

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>