

University of Johannesburg appoints Ylva Rodny-Gumede

The University of Johannesburg has appointed professor Ylva Rodny-Gumede as its new head of international office, effective 1 August 2019.

Professor Rodny-Gumede is a former lecturer in the School of Communication Science at the University of South Africa (Unisa) and has held fellowships at universities in South Africa and abroad, including the University of the Witwatersrand and the Danish School of Journalism in Denmark.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>