

The future of travel

Future Publishing has launched Travel, a new bi-monthly magazine addressing all aspects of outbound travel aimed at would-be business and holiday makers.

Comments Richard Lendrum, MD of Future Publishing, "Travel is something we are hugely excited about. In each issue, we look forward to unpacking a wide range of travel-related topics, including the likes of corporate incentive travel; cruising; city features; island resorts; airlines; business travel; hotel accommodation, and much, much more."

With an initial print run of 20 000 copies, the March/April launch issue of Travel is available for purchase from CNA for R19.95. Copies will also be distributed through American Express Travel Services, ATO, Absolute Tours and Seekers Travel.

Travel is a logical addition to Future Publishing's current stable of titles, which includes British Airways' UpFront and Avis and City Lodge Hotel Group's The South African, also aimed at the business travel and holiday maker.

"Travel is the first magazine to provide everything you need to know about business and leisure travel in a single publication. It is undoubtedly, essential reading for every traveller," says Lendrum.
