

What's on tap at the 10th Cape Town Festival of Beer

The 10th instalment of the Cape Town Festival of Beer will be held at the Hamilton's Rugby Club in Green Point from 29 November to 1 December 2019. The festival is set to offer entertainment, live music, beers, food and activities for the kids.

The festival is the largest selection of commercially available beer in the Southern Hemisphere. 2019 festival-goers will be treated to a wide variety of brews and fermented beverages, live music and entertainment as well as a taste experience from over 15 different local and artisanal pop-up restaurants and food trucks.

Celebrating the 10th anniversary of the Cape Town Festival of Beer, founder Martin Tucker explains: “ This year will be our biggest and best Festival of Beer yet, we have been around for a decade, something not all festivals manage to achieve and this year we will be celebrating it in true beer style.

Families, friends, kids and adults – there is something for everyone on this special anniversary weekend. We are planning to have comedians, DJs, great food and of course an incredible selection of brews for you to choose from.”
