Having previously partnered with SABC commercial and public radio to turn its flagship brands around, Pezisa says that this relationship with Primedia is an exciting opportunity to tap and build on their radio credentials and that they look forward to rejuvenating the category and giving it relevance. “We are also excited by the opportunity to leverage Lead SA for Primedia Broadcasting. Giving brands a purpose is something that we revel in.”

“As an agency born in the same month as the new South Africa, Net#work BBDO delights in the crazy kind of optimism that exemplifies South Africa’s two-and-a-half decades into democracy. We love work that celebrates and uplifts the human spirit, that has a selfless edge to it; demonstrates entrepreneurial courage, and radio is part of the fibre of the South African story. – Pezisa ”
